

Independent press is the lifeblood of democracy. Megacorporations should not be allowed to control the media. There needs to be full disclosure to the public before any restrictions on media ownership are lifted.